6th Annual Season of Caring Living Mentally Well

Featuring Kevin Hines
Internationally Known Expert on Mental Wellness & Suicide Prevention

Kevin Hines travels the world, sharing his powerful story of unlikely survival and his strong will to live. Two years after being diagnosed with bipolar disorder (age 19), he leapt from the Golden Gate Bridge, becoming one of only 34 (less than 1%) to survive. He shares his message of living mentally well with audiences around the world.
